Surgical Training: Global ideas, concerns and expectations in the Pandemic

Pansurg collaboration

www.pansurg.org/
twitter @pansurg
Why is this important?

• Voice to trainees
• Disruption to a lifetime of work
• Support those who have supported others
• Learn from our experiences
• Reduce the impact if there are future disruptions
CONSULT-19
https://www.surveymonkey.co.uk/r/consult19

Loss of elective training numbers this training year

- No effect
- Up to 25%
- 26-50%
- 51-75%
- Over 75%

Number of elective session between 1st to 15th April

- None
- 1
- 2
- 3
- 4
- >5
CONSULT-19

https://www.surveymonkey.co.uk/r/consult19

Will you need additional training at your current level?

- Yes: 20%
- Probably: 40%
- Able to progress: 45%

How was the induction before your new role?

- Excellent, met all my needs: 25%
- Some, did not meet all my needs: 50%
- No induction: 10%
A global hub for surgeons and related professionals to share experiences, policy, data and research for the delivery of safe, effective surgery during the COVID-19 pandemic.
PanSurg PREDICT

Key Aims of National UK Collaborative study:
- Generate real-time risk prediction models
- Inform surgical decision making.
- Create accessible live datasets

Please register and support PanSurg Predict:
https://redcap.imperial.ac.uk/surveys/?s=49WFNYKAKE
The CNS & AHP journey
Redeployment, work-life-balance, and supporting cancer patients

Host - Anne Moutadjer
Colorectal Nurse Specialist, Imperial College Healthcare Trust

Joined by
Mauro Proserpio
Colorectal Nurse Specialist
Lora Langford
Colorectal Nurse Specialist
Sali Putt
Skin Nurse Specialist
Ruth Smith
Physiotherapist & Business Lead at Complete Pilates

FRIDAY 29 MAY 2020
LONDON 17:00
PANSURG.ORG/WEBINARS

PanSurg is a global initiative based at Imperial College London’s Department of Surgery and Cancer and Institute of Global Health Innovation.